Dusty's Dabblings

The June bride thinks the month she was married will always seem the most beautiful in the year. After awhile she discovers that the beautiful months are the ones having five pay days.

The world has outgrown the notion that a doctor must be old to know anything. But the doctor who would write his prescription in plain English would never get a second call.

An eastern humorist wonders what becomes of all the old, stale roasted peanuts. Guess he never attended the Sells-Floto circus.

It must be a terrible wrench to the vital organs to lose some of your wearing apparel. The other day a woman lost a supporter in front of the Elks home and she almost had hysterics.

There was a little gathering of the "congenial spirit" the other night at the home of an Alliance professional man, his wife being out of the city. After the business of the meeting had been properly disposed of a social hour was enjoyed. Among the toasts was this one, given by a "shining light" in the professional world: "Here's to the three ruling powers of the day—the press, the pulpit and the petticoat. The first spreads knowledge, the second spreads morals, and the third spreads considerably."

A man may laugh when a woman old enough to know better tries to be witty but only succeeds in being coarse, but he would feel like taking a club to his wife if she talked that way.

The fellow who has nothing to say generally takes up all his time saying it.

Many a man lays the blame of a good many things he does to his Will Power, when the truth is that it is his Won't Power.

And there's no maid like an old maid.

There is one Alliance man who is doing some fancy skating and some cute tricks on thin ice and he thinks he is fooling his wife, but the neighbors say she is just keeping quiet and waiting for him to drop through an ice hole.

When a man walks in the straight and narrow path there is always plenty of elbow room.

What They Think of Bush

The following are a few of the many favorable comments on the work of David V. Bush, who will appear at the Methodist church in Alliance next Monday evening, November 1:

"Uncommonly clever, as attested by the numerous encores."—Daily Nonpariel, Council Bluffs, Iowa.

"Cleverly and artistically rendered."—Owatonna Chronicle, Owatonna, Minn.
"Mr. Bush's eccentric country dialect was clever and artistic and proved a prime factor with the audience."—Wichita Daily Eagle, Wichita, Kan.

ASHBY

Ashby, Neb., Oct. 26—Lee Clinch came down from Rapid City Monday looking after the interest of the Ashby Lumber company, and visiting with friends.

Miss Joyce Hinton began working at J. C. Skipper's, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Billow came in Monday from Hale, Mo., to visit with L. E. Hubbard and family.

Miss Lillian Smizer went to Hyannis Sunday and began working at the Commercial.

The Maccabee lodge gave a dance in the Hubbard new store building Saturday night. A good crowd attended, and a good time is reported by all.

L. E. Hubbard and M. D. Billow went to Ellsworth and Bingham to look for a car of potatoes.

O. L. Cramer came up from Mullen to visit with his brother out south of town.

Monday about 10 a. m., fire broke out in the Wolfe & Dunn livery and feed barn, and before any one could get there and get out the horses the fire had made such headway that it was impossible to save all the horses.

It was a great fight by our bucket brigade to save the J. E. Renfro and Hubbard Mercantile store buildings. The origin of the fire is unknown. Ralph Remour lost four head of horses, and Fred Engle lost a new bridle, saddle and chaps.

Fred Engle went to Omaha Sunday with cattle.

Mrs. S. A. Crouse who has a homestead out south of town died Tuesday morning. Mrs. Crouse had been poorly for the past year.

Maupin and Hervey Hubbard attended the dance in Hyannis Friday night.

THE BEST PROOF

Alliance Citizens Cannot Doubt It
Doan's Kidney Pills were used—
They brought benefit.

The story was told to Alliance residents.

Time has strengthened the evidence.

Has proven the result lasting.

The testimony is from this locality.

The proof convincing.

Mrs. Herman Schroeder, Washington Ave., Sidney, Nebr., says: "I was in a bad way as the result of kidney trouble. I suffered from pains in the small of my back, dizzy spells, and I was unable to stoop. On a physician's advice, I put a plaster on my back, but this did not relieve me. I also tried many kidney remedies, but to no avail until I began using Doan's Kidney Pills. One box stopped the pain in my back and I continued using this medicine until the trouble disappeared."

A PERMANENT CURE
ON A LATER DATE Mrs. Schroeder said: "I willingly confirm my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills. The cure they made has been permanent."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Schroeder has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
